

Last night was the premier of the latest installment of "Celebrity Apprentice" and the Palm Centro was quite the start of the show. Several of the celebrities could be seen using the Palm Centro as the teams fought to complete the task of raising the most money selling cupcakes. Joan Rivers, Herschel Walker, Brande Roderick and Annie Duke were among the celebrities using the Centro. It's in reruns on CNBC or can be seen on NBC.com.

